

Brainstorming group honors law firm leader

Nov. 28, 2008

John W. Daniels Jr., chairman of the Quarles & Brady law firm, will be presented with the 19th annual James Howard Baker Award on Saturday by the Community Brainstorming Conference.

The award, named in honor of a longtime civil rights activist, goes to those in the community who have worked "quietly, consistently and tirelessly" to improve the quality of life of African-Americans, particularly those in Milwaukee's central city.

Daniels has been active in a range of community organizations, particularly those dealing in causes affecting young people.

Saturday's event starts with breakfast at 8 a.m., with the program beginning at 9 a.m. at St. Matthew Christian Methodist Episcopal Church, 2944 N. 9th St., Milwaukee.

The Community Brainstorming Conference is a monthly forum on issues of importance to African-Americans in Milwaukee.
