

ASSOCIATION FOR LAW & BUSINESS: BUSINESS LAW SYMPOSIUM
SATURDAY, MARCH, 28TH 2020
MARTIN LEVIN ADVOCACY CENTER

Description:

UF Law's Association for Law & Business is hosting its annual Business Law Symposium on March 28th. During this day event, the organization aims to cater to students who are interested in a career in business law and would like to hear from experienced practitioners in various fields. Business litigators, corporate attorneys, and alternative careers practitioners will fill the panels, offering students a unique perspective not attainable in the classroom. Our goal is to provide insight and career advice to students and give them an inside look of various careers in business law. An informal networking reception will be held following the symposium.

10:45am—11:00am	Opening remarks from Association for Law & Business and sponsors.
11:00am—12:15pm	Panel 1: Introduction to Business Law: careers in business law, landing the job and practical advice. *4–5 Transactional and Litigation Attorneys
12:15pm—1:00pm	Lunch
1:00pm—2:15pm	Panel 2: Alternative Careers in Business Law: General Counsel practitioners, JD advantage practitioners, and business owners. *4–5 Alternative Careers Individuals
2:15pm—2:30pm	Break
2:30pm—3:45pm	Panel 3: Women in Business: Women in variety of business capacities discussing challenges and trends in the workplace. *4–5 Women (can have overlap with other panels)
3:45pm—4pm	Closing Remarks and transition into informal networking reception.
4:00pm—	Cocktail networking reception held in MLAC foyer with speakers and students.