Partner

Bradley G. Rigor, Chair of the firm's Trusts & Estates Group in Naples, is a Florida Bar Board Certified Wills, Trusts and Estates Attorney who concentrates his practice in estate planning and estate and trust settlement. He has over 30 years of experience working with families in the planning of their estate and with their fiduciaries in settling their affairs. Mr. Rigor's recent experience includes

- Managing the trust and administration settlement groups within two large New York Stock Exchange banks.
- Advising individual fiduciaries as to their duties and powers and the interpretation of wills and trusts.
- Advising corporate fiduciaries regarding the administration of trusts, including the proper handling of discretionary payment requests.
- Creation of planning documents designed to maximize opportunities available under the federal estate and gift tax laws, while achieving desired family goals, including wealth preservation from one generation to the next.
- Drafting documents, including wills, trusts (both revocable and irrevocable), health care documents, durable powers of attorney, prenuptial and postnuptial agreements, life insurance trusts, and charitable trusts.
