

Brandon R. Gutschow

Partner

Brandon Gutschow represents clients in all phases of complex commercial litigation. Brandon has negotiated and litigated commercial disputes for clients ranging from small closely-held companies to largely publicly-traded corporations. His practice focuses on insurance coverage and energy/utility law. Brandon's experience includes:

- Representing major manufacturers in long-tail insurance coverage disputes involving asbestos and environmental claims triggering multiple policies
- Advising clients across various industries with respect to a broad range of insurance coverage issues, including coverage for cyber/data breaches and strategies for placing and maximizing various types of coverage
- Representing paper mill in sewerage rate dispute before the Public Service Commission of Wisconsin
- Representing brewery in water rate case before the Public Service Commission of Wisconsin
- Representing utility service providers in rate cases and other regulatory matters
- Representing investment advisors in disputes with customers
