

David V. Burkett

Of Counsel

David V. Burkett represents restaurants, entertainment, technology and advertising companies of all sizes, as well as government entities and individuals. He focuses on commercial real estate transactional matters including leasing, real property acquisitions and dispositions, easements, and licenses. David drafts and negotiates a wide array of other types of agreements, including non-disclosure, construction, independent contractor, settlement, advertising, SaaS, and asset purchase; as well as all instruments attendant to real property purchases. He provides strategic guidance and high-volume transactional support on a broad range of real estate and other legal matters.

In addition to real estate, David has experience in business mergers & acquisitions; small business transactions; corporate governance; compliance matters; software licenses, website terms of use, and privacy statements; copyright and trademark assignments; estate planning matters; commercial litigation support; intellectual property; and advertising.
