

Dawn R. Gabel

Partner

Dawn Gabel focuses her practice on sales and use tax advice and litigation, property tax issues, and multistate income tax advice and litigation.

Ms. Gabel represents clients across a broad range of industries, including energy, construction, retail, manufacturing, low-income housing, and development of golf courses, and resorts. She provides counsel to these clients on valuation, exemption, and classification issues, and she represents them in sales and use tax matters and income tax matters, encompassing audit and refund disputes, multistate compliance, multistate voluntary disclosure programs, apportionment issues, and luxury and excise tax issues. She represents clients before assessing officials and bodies, administrative tribunals and boards, and trial and appellate courts throughout the United States.

In addition, Ms. Gabel speaks frequently on local and national tax matters. She has been recognized by her peers in The Best Lawyers in America and The Legal 500 US.
