

Ellen E. Cranberg

Associate

Ellen Cranberg is a litigation attorney who represents clients across myriad industries and business sectors. She has experience with contract disputes, tenancy issues, real estate and land use disputes, bid protests, construction defects, and others. Committed to pro bono service, Ellen also works with a team of attorneys to represent juvenile offenders who seek to reform the Wisconsin parole system.

Prior to joining Quarles & Brady, Ellen was a judicial intern for the Wisconsin Court of Appeals where she drafted judicial orders and memoranda for pending cases before the court. In addition, Ellen was a summer associate at Quarles & Brady in 2019.
