

Eric D. Ledbetter

Partner

Eric Ledbetter is a partner and immigration attorney specializing in complex business immigration matters for U.S. and global companies. He has deep industry experience in Health & Life Sciences, Manufacturing, Banking & Financial Institutions, Research & Higher Education Institutions, among others. Across these diverse sectors, he represents investors, doctors, scientists, researchers, engineers, business executives, entertainers, and high-tech workers.

Eric works closely with employers of all sizes to manage and support their immigration compliance programs. He advises employers with H, L, O, TN, B, E, and other types of non-immigrant visa status, as well as J-1 waivers and permanent residency based on PERM foreign labor certification and EB-1 Outstanding Research, Extraordinary Ability, and Multinational Management. Eric also advises companies on a range of workplace issues, including immigration and I-9 compliance, E-Verify best practices, avoidance of discrimination claims based on alienage and citizenship status, and investigations and immigration enforcement matters.

Eric is active with the American Immigration Lawyers Association, having served on and chaired numerous AILA committees at the national and local level. He is a frequent speaker and author on timely developments in immigration law and compliance.
