

Jared W. Miller

Associate

Jared Miller is an attorney in the Business Law Practice Group. He maintains a comprehensive corporate practice, which includes researching and analyzing a wide array of state and local, federal, and international tax laws and strategies. During law school, Jared was an extern with the United States Attorney's Office, where he drafted a memorandum used by an Assistant United States Attorney in a decision to charge. While clerking at other firms, he also researched and drafted motions and responses used by attorneys as the substantial source of filings in court.
