

John A. Harris

Partner

John Harris is a partner in the firm's Phoenix office. John has over 20 years of experience as a commercial bankruptcy/litigation attorney. He has pursued and developed a national bankruptcy practice representing lenders, debtors, and other constituencies in commercial bankruptcy, commercial litigation, and commercial workout and restructure matters. John's practice has primarily focused on:

- Representation of commercial lenders and other parties in bankruptcy and in bankruptcy litigation;
- Negotiating and documenting pre-bankruptcy loan forbearance and workout agreements;
- Negotiating and/or litigating secured creditor rights after a bankruptcy is filed; and
- Negotiating, documenting, and litigating post-petition debtor-in-possession financing agreements.

John has also been admitted to appear before bankruptcy, federal district, and federal appeals courts throughout the United States.
