

Kim Marie Wynn

Partner

Kim Wynn structures, negotiates and closes commercial finance transactions. She has extensive experience with asset-based loans and other secured loans as counsel for agents, lenders and borrowers. Her work includes transactions throughout the United States involving real estate and personal property collateral and transactions involving foreign currencies, foreign obligors, and foreign collateral. She also handles workouts and restructurings and successfully structures and negotiates complex intercreditor, participation, and subordination agreements. She represents banks and borrowers in tax exempt bond financings, master trust indenture financing and complex multi-facility transactions.
