

Matthew Splitek

Partner

Matthew Splitek is a partner in the Commercial Litigation Group. He has handled lawsuits spanning a variety of subjects and forums, but focuses his practice on corporate governance disputes, class actions, and professional liability matters. Matthew's experience includes:

- Winning a victory at trial that dismissed a shareholder suit seeking to dissolve a corporation.
- Successfully defending against multiple shareholder class actions seeking to enjoin mergers or acquisitions of publicly traded companies.
- Representing a special litigation committee tasked with investigating claims that a company's chairman and CEO had breached their fiduciary duties to a minority shareholder.
- Winning a summary judgment that dismissed claims brought against a transportation company by its former CEO, then successfully defending that judgment on appeal.
- Representing lawyers and law firms in professional liability suits.
