Partner

Randall Fearnow is a partner and Chicago Office Chair of the firm's Health Law Group. He concentrates his practice in the area of long-term care and advises physicians, skilled nursing facilities, assisted and independent living facilities, home health agencies, transportation providers, pharmacies, and other health care companies on a variety of regulatory issues.

Randy has represented the interests of long-term care providers in state and federal trial and appellate courts for many years. He assists providers who have become the focus of state or federal audits or investigations, or who face qui tam and civil false claims allegations. Randy has worked in various capacities with the Indiana General Assembly from 1983 to 1998, including five sessions as Chief Counsel to the Senate from 1993 to 1998. From 1985 to 1987, he served as General Counsel and Vice President of Government Relations for the Indiana Health Care Association.
