

Professional Liability

Counsel that offers robust legal support to any professional

Capabilities at a glance

- Proven track record of excellence in trials, combining the best strategies and case management with powerful arguments and expert testimonies.
- Legal support focused on your interests, which we will always investigate comprehensively pre-dispute to see if litigation can be avoided.
- Successful defenses in state and federal courts representing clients working in many fields, including insurance brokers, trustees, accountants, actuaries and lawyers.
- We provide a dedicated client service team, a tailored group of lawyers and business professionals whose experience and skill sets match with your specific legal needs.

Attorneys dedicated to protecting your business and your reputation

When your reputation—and your livelihood—are at stake, you need the strongest legal representation possible. With the breadth of experience on our Professional Liability team, we can quickly identify both problems and their solutions in order to resolve matters for you quickly and cost efficiently, ideally before litigation commences. Perhaps even more importantly, we are experienced trial lawyers. When career- or business-threatening disputes arise, clients deserve attorneys who have both organized and prepared effective cases and argued them successfully in courtrooms at every level. We focus on developing long-term partnerships with our clients, getting to know our clients' individual businesses from the ground up to understand their strategies and needs.

Knowledgeable and aggressive professional liability litigators

Quarles' Professional Liability team has extensive insight and experience litigating complicated claims brought against accountants, actuaries, attorneys, insurance brokers, trustees and many other professionals operating in the worlds of business, finance and the law. When the need arises, we are proud to assertively serve the litigation needs of all professionals, including:

- Providing insightful and comprehensive pre-dispute investigation services to help our clients avoid litigation when possible.
