About Rachel

Advisor for buyers and sellers across a broad range of companies

Rachael Brodd maintains a comprehensive corporate practice, with a focus on advising buyers and sellers in acquisitions and divestitures. She works with a variety of companies, such as family businesses, private equity funds and publicly held companies. In addition to her traditional corporate practice, Rachael also:

- Counsels clients regarding antitrust matters that may arise during the transaction process.
- Guides clients through the process of completing and filing the Notification and Report Form for Certain Mergers and Acquisitions that buyers and sellers may be required to file under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act.
